That is why We ordained for the Children of Israel that whoever takes a life — unless as a punishment for murder or mischief in the land — it will be as if they killed all of humanity; and whoever saves a life, it will be as if they saved all of humanity.

Qur'an 5:32 · Clear Quran translation

WHAT IT DOES NOT SAY

That any person or armed group may take a life on its own authority. The exception is a legal category, not a licence.

O humanity! Indeed, We created you from a male and a female, and made you into peoples and tribes so that you may get to know one another. Surely the most noble of you in the sight of Allah is the most righteous among you.

Qur'an 49:13 · Clear Quran translation

WHAT IT DOES NOT SAY

That difference is a reason for domination. The purpose of difference is mutual knowledge; the criterion is righteousness, not power.

Let there be no compulsion in religion, for the truth stands out clearly from falsehood.

Qur'an 2:256 · Clear Quran translation

WHAT IT DOES NOT SAY

That Muslims cannot invite, argue, or witness. It forbids coercion, not persuasion.

O believers! Stand firm for justice as witnesses for Allah even if it is against yourselves, your parents, or close relatives. Be they rich or poor, Allah is best to ensure their interests.

Qur'an 4:135 · Clear Quran translation

WHAT IT DOES NOT SAY

That justice is optional when it costs you. It applies against your own side, your family, and your party.

Benefit people. Speak truth to power.

01 The most beneficial people

"The most beloved of people to Allah are those most beneficial to people." — al-Ṭabarānī, al-Muʿjam al-Awsaṭ. Graded ṣaḥīḥ by al-Albānī, Silsila 906. Some scholars question parts of the chain.

02 A word of truth

"The best jihad is a word of truth before a tyrannical ruler." — Abū Dāwūd 4344 (ṣaḥīḥ, al-Albānī); al-Tirmidhī 2174 (ḥasan gharīb). Speech, not violence.

03 What it does not say

That intention is enough. That insult is a virtue. That anyone may take up arms. The standard is concrete benefit and truthful speech.

Gradings are human scholarly judgments; check the collection and chain.

What the texts do not do

01 They do not pick a side

They do not tell us which armed group is right, which state is more guilty, or which donation is most effective.

02 They do not guarantee acceptance

Only Allah knows what pleases Him. Do the work; do not claim the reward.

03 They do not replace evidence

What is happening, what should be done, and how to do it are three different questions.

04 They do not excuse harm

Good intentions do not justify lies, dehumanisation, or money sent to a fraud.

Faith / Perspective. This is a reading, not a fatwa; consult a qualified scholar for rulings.

Civilians on every side count equally.

1 Hold every power to the same evidence
Governments, armed groups, and foreign powers. No exceptions for your side.

2 Refuse dehumanisation
No propaganda. No collective blame. No calls to violence against any group.

3 Make benefit concrete
Food, water, medicine, a wage, a safe return, a fair trial. Not just words.

Allah suffices. He is the best guarantor.

1 Give where the gap is binding
Recurring, unrestricted money to verified local and frontline organizations.

A dialogue group, a giving circle, a workplace campaign.

WHAT THIS MEANS

The gap is not evenly distributed. Neither is the money.

OCHA · IRC 11 May 2026 · UN Chad 5 Feb 2026

Recurring money is infrastructure.

01 It lets a partner plan

A six-month commitment is more useful than a one-off spike. It buys food, fuel, and staff time.

02 It protects a caseload

You cannot fill a national gap. You can protect a named clinic, school, or shelter cohort.

03 It keeps local staff employed

Local organizations are closest to the need and most underfunded. Unrestricted money keeps them alive.

Reasoned guidance. Ask every organization for a 90-day report.

WHERE IT GOES

A simple split.

01 60% · Frontline food and health
WFP, ICRC, PRCS, YFCA, national Red Cross/Red Crescent societies.

02 30% · Local rights and documentation
Al Mezan, HRCP, Elman Peace, ATPDH. Documentation is protective.

03 10% · Mine action or missing persons
A demined road and an answer for a family are durable benefits.

A starting point, not a rule. Adjust to the context and your budget.

Five checks before you give.

01 Registration

Find the charity number on the regulator's own database — not on the appeal page.

02 Audited accounts

Last two years, published. A glossy annual report is not an audit.

03 Field presence

A named country office and a UN cluster or established partner that can confirm delivery.

04 Sanctions

Screen the organization and its principals against OFAC, UN, EU, and UK lists.

05 Complaints

A published whistleblowing or beneficiary complaints channel. Ask for it.

Full checklist and organization ledger in the companion booklet.

THIS WEEK

Give monthly. Ask for a report.

1 Choose one pipeline
Food/health first if you can only choose one. It is the most immediate.

2 Set a six-month budget
An amount you can sustain without resentment. Recurring beats dramatic.

3 Write the 90-day ask
"What can you deliver in 30 days, to how many people, and how will I see it?"

The gap is a choice. Your part of it can be a decision.

You are the distribution.

01 A share is an act

It can raise money, distort a negotiation, or expose a family to reprisal. Treat it as one.

02 Emotion is a warning

The more a post makes you want to act immediately, the more you need to check it.

03 Silence is allowed

You do not have to post about every atrocity. You do have to avoid amplifying a lie.

Reasoned guidance for ordinary users, not professional investigators.

Six steps before you hit share.

01 Pause

Find the original post, not the screenshot. Who posted it first?

02 Date and place

Check the upload date, the earliest instance, and one landmark. If the trees are wrong, stop.

03 Context

What happened before and after? A clip can omit the target or the rescue.

04 Corroborate

Two independent sources — not two accounts quoting the same original.

05 Check the money

If it is an appeal, go to the organization's own site. Never a DM or personal account.

06 Correct

If you shared something false, say so publicly and link the correction.

Use InVID-WeVerify, Google Lens, Yandex, and map/satellite tools where available.

Graphic images are not neutral evidence.

01 Dignity

Do not share identifiable bodies or faces without consent and a clear public-interest reason.

02 Trauma

Survivors and families see the same feed. A description with a source is often enough.

03 Propaganda

Both sides curate footage. Ask who benefits from you sharing this clip, now.

Reasoned guidance. Follow local law and platform rules.

Look for the tells — then ask for the raw file.

01 Hands and text

Extra fingers, garbled lettering, inconsistent signage.

02 Light and motion

Shadows that disagree; objects that warp; unnatural crowd movement.

03 Provenance

Ask for the original file and metadata. C2PA credentials are emerging, not universal.

04 Too perfect

A clean, cinematic clip of a chaotic event is a warning, not a gift.

No detector is definitive. Use several checks and label uncertainty.

FUNDRAISING

Five questions before you give.

01 Who is asking?
A registered organization, or a personal account with a story?

02 Where does the money go?
A named beneficiary, a budget, and a delivery partner — or vague promises?

03 Is it sanctioned?
Check OFAC, UN, EU, and UK lists. Terror-financing rules can reach donors.

04 Can I get a receipt?
Yes, from the organization's own payment page. No, from a DM.

05 What is the report?
Ask for a 90-day report before you give, not after.

Full vetting checklist in the companion booklet.

Correct louder than you shared.

01 Name it

"I shared this yesterday. It is not what it claimed."

02 Cite it

Link the source that corrects it. Do not hide the correction in a comment.

03 Do not delete to evade

Delete only if the post endangers someone. Otherwise, leave the record and correct it.

Reasoned guidance. A correction is a service, not a humiliation.

THIS WEEK

Check one thing before you share.

1 Pick one claim
A number, a video, or an appeal. Run the six steps.

2 Teach one person
Send them the protocol. Verification spreads by habit, not by policy.

3 Protect one person
Remove a name, a location, or a face that should not be public.

The addressee line — respectful, precise, and hard to ignore.

WHAT IT DOES NOT SAY

This is not a partisan demand. It is a reminder of the duty that comes with public office.

One page. One ask. One decision.

01 One page

If it is longer, it will be skimmed. Put the ask in the first paragraph and repeat it at the end.

02 One ask

A specific vote, hearing, funding line, ILO process, or case. Not "do more."

03 One decision

Name the decision-maker and the date. Ask for a reply within 30 days.

Reasoned guidance from standard constituency-letter practice.

Four paragraphs.

01 Who you are

A constituent, a voter, a member of the public — and why this matters to you.

02 What is happening

Two or three dated facts, with sources. No adjectives doing the work of evidence.

03 What you ask

Three to five numbered asks, each tied to a decision the office can influence.

04 What you want back

A specific position, a vote, or a meeting — and a reply within 30 days.

Keep a copy. Log the date, the office, and the response.

The opening that sets the tone.

To those appointed by the general public to serve in the best interest of the people:

I am a constituent in [district/ward]. I write to you not as a partisan, but as one of the people you are appointed to serve. I hold civilians on every side to the same standard, and I am asking for a specific decision, not a general statement.

[Two or three dated facts with sources.]

I ask you to: [three to five numbered asks].

I would be grateful for your specific position and the action you will take, and for a reply within 30 days.

Yours sincerely, [Name] [Contact details]

One page. One ask. One decision.

What makes a letter land.

01 Do

Be brief, factual, and local. Cite the date and the source. Ask for a specific action. Thank the staff.

02 Don't

Insult the office, question the person's faith or identity, forward unverified footage, or make a threat.

03 Do

Say what you want them to do, not only what you oppose. A demand without a path is a slogan.

04 Don't

Claim to speak for a whole community. Say "I" and name your connection.

Reasoned guidance. Harassment and threats are never advocacy.

FOLLOW-UP

The letter is the beginning.

01 Log it

Date, office, staff name, ask, and reply. A record turns a gesture into a campaign.

02 Follow up once

After 30 days, a short, polite reminder with the same ask. No abuse.

03 Make it public

If the reply is substantive, share it. If it is silence, say so — with the date and the ask.

04 Bring a friend

Two constituents are harder to ignore than one. Five are a meeting.

Reasoned guidance. Publication is a decision; never publish a private reply without consent.

THIS WEEK

Send one letter.

1 Pick one decision
A vote, a funding line, an ILO session, a court case, a contract.

2 Use the addressee line
"To those appointed by the general public to serve in the best interest of the people."

3 Ask for a reply

Pause before you answer.

01 Daily action

Before replying to a message that angers you, wait one hour. Write what you want to say, then what you actually need.

02 Weekly text

Qur'an 2:153: "O you who have believed, seek help through patience and prayer. Indeed, Allah is with the patient."

03 Hadith

"The strong is not the one who overcomes people by his strength, but the one who controls himself while in anger." — Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī 6114

MEASURE

One pause kept. One apology made. One conversation not escalated.

One daily action, ten minutes of reflection. If you miss a day, continue; do not restart.

Correct one thing a day.

01 Daily action

Correct one small inaccuracy — in a message, a share, or a story you tell about yourself. Say "I was wrong" without a paragraph of justification.

02 Weekly text

Qur'an 4:135: "Stand firm for justice as witnesses for Allah even if it is against yourselves."

03 Hadith

"Truthfulness leads to righteousness, and righteousness leads to Paradise." — Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī 6094; Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim 2607

MEASURE

One correction made. One number checked. One uncertainty named.

Honesty is a practice, not a personality trait.

Give something daily.

01 Daily action

Give money, time, attention, or a skill. Give without announcing it. One day, give to someone who cannot reciprocate.

02 Weekly text

Qur'an 2:261: "The example of those who spend their wealth in the way of Allah is like a seed of grain that sprouts seven ears; in every ear there are a hundred grains."

03 Hadith

"Charity does not decrease wealth." — Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim 2588

MEASURE

One gift given. One hour given. One person helped who cannot repay.

Small and consistent beats dramatic and unsustainable.

Teach one thing. Keep one practice.

01 Daily action

Teach one thing from this booklet to one person. Review your giving, letters, and conversations.

02 Weekly text

Qur'an 49:13: "...made you into peoples and tribes so that you may get to know one another."

03 Hadith

"The most beloved deeds to Allah are those done consistently, even if small." — Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī 6464; Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim 783

MEASURE

One person taught. One practice chosen. One commitment kept.

Choose one practice to keep after day 30.

Five examples from the 30 days.

01 Day 1
Patience: pause before one angry reply.

02 Day 8
Honesty: correct one factual error you shared.

03 Day 15
Generosity: give to a verified organization.

04 Day 25
Integration: have one conversation across a divide.

05 Day 30
Integration: choose the one practice you will keep.

Full 30-day tracker in the companion booklet.

GUARDRAILS

Do not turn practice into performance.

01 No spiritual superiority
The plan is for you, not a standard by which to judge others.

02 No secrecy that isolates
If you cannot tell a trusted person what you are doing, examine why.

03 No burnout
Ten minutes is enough. The work is a marathon, not a sprint.

04 No substitution
Prayer and reflection do not replace the call, the donation, or the letter.

Only Allah knows what pleases Him. Do the work; do not claim the reward.

DAY 01

Start with ten minutes.

1 Choose one theme
Patience, honesty, or generosity. Do not try all three at once.

2 Put it where you will see it
A note, a phone reminder, a mark on the calendar.

3 Tell one person
Accountability without performance.

Thirty days is not a transformation. It is a beginning.
